

Writing Rubric 25 Points Possible

“A” 23-25 points “B” 20-22 points “C” 17-19 points “D” 15-16 points “F” 14 or less
A. Thesis Statement 10 points B. Addresses all parts of the question 5 points C. Substantiates thesis with appropriate historical evidence 5 points D. Length (3-5 paragraphs) 3 points E. Grammar 1 point F. Organization 1 point	To obtain maximum number of points per category : A. Thesis is clear, analytical, and comprehensive. 10 points B. All parts of the question are addressed. C. The essay provides an abundant amount of supporting evidence that is accurate, relevant, and clearly supports the thesis statement and topic sentences. D. The length minimum is 3-5 paragraphs. E. Less than 7 grammatical errors 1 point. F. Paragraphs are well organized.	Thesis The introduction contains an acceptable thesis and most of the topic sentences are well-organized and support the thesis. 8 points The introduction contains a thesis that is clear but simplistic. Few topic sentences support the thesis. Topic sentences are not well organized too vague. 7 points The introduction does not contain an argument in the thesis. Thesis is attempted but not clear or sufficient. 6 points There isn't a thesis statement. 0-5 points

The writing assignment consists of answering questions on the films and readings we discuss in class. The assignments will be given at any time during the semester. The assignment must be at least 1 page in length. There are no make-ups. If you miss the questions due to an unexcused absence you lose the participation points.

You must be as detailed as possible and be certain to address all parts of the essay (meaning: you should probably put some thought into this and write 3-5 paragraphs..